Life is Beautiful!

Inspired from 'Reader's Digest'

I was having an average morning until I sat down in front of my office computer .

"your password has expired", a server message flashed on my screen, with instructions for changing it...

In my company we have to change passwords monthly..

I was deeply depressed after my recent cheating by my best friend. Disbelief over what he had done to me was what I thought all day long ....

I remembered a tip I'd heard from my former boss. He'd said, "I'm going to use a password that is going to change my life".

I couldn't focus on getting things done in my current mood.. My password reminded me that I shouldn't let myself be a victim of my recent events and that I was strong enough to do something about it.

I made my password – Forgive@him. I had to type this password several times every day, each time my computer would lock. Each time I came back from lunch I wrote forgive him.

The simple action changed the way I looked at my swindler friend.. That constant reminder of reconciliation led me to accept the way things happened and helped me deal with my depression..

By the time the server prompted me to change my password following month, I felt free.

The next time I had to change my password I thought about the next thing that I had to get done. My password became Quit@smoking4ever .

It motivated me to follow my goal and I was able to quit smoking.

One month later, my password became Save4trip@europe, and in three months I was able to visit Europe.

Reminders helped me materialize my goals and kept me motivated and excited, it's sometimes difficult to come up with your next goal Keeping at it brings great results.

After a few months my password was -lifeis#beautiful !!!

Life is going to change again...

Moral of the Story is Your Internal Talk Matters, what you tell yourself conditions you to think in that direction and you are able to witness wonderful RESULTS.

FROM PRINCIPAL'S DESK.....

We need change. Well, it is not a cup of coffee that you grab and you are ready to go for a sip. Just have a look around you. It is a call for dynamism! If you choose to stick to 'I don't give it a crap', you are bound to tumble and roll and roll and finally you cut a sorry figure. There is no sense in getting into the boot of 'rolling stone never gathers moss', while you went stone crazy throughout your life.

Rise and grab the light. We have got to learn to bounce through bumpy track and still be standing. And we know we are at it coz those bumps have been evened and smoothed. We had our goals fixed during bumpy ride and still we go with that star right ahead of us. We never let go the sight of what we are here for.

We haven't given up, we have smitten many 'give in'. We are here to be the reason of that never backing down spirit. We will survive, spearhead, sustain and never succumb to deterrents.

Scad will rise and sail above the horizon.
